

PSALM 42: O GOD, FOR YOU I LONG

REFRAIN: (♩ = ca. 53) 1st time: Cantor, All repeat; thereafter: All

Capo 1: (D) (G) (Am7) (Gsus4)(G) (Am) (B7sus4)(B7)
 Eb Ab Bbm7 Absus4 Ab Bbm C7sus4 C7

(a tempo)

O God, for you I long, — more than those who watch for dawn: —

like the deer that yearns for wa - ter, so I thirst for you, my God. —

VERSES: Freely, with a little more movement (♩ = ca. 56) Cantor

1. Like the deer that yearns for run - ning streams, so I
2. I drink tears as if they were my bread by —
3. All these things will I re - mem - ber as I
4. Why so sad with - in me, O my soul, why cast
5. Still my spir - it dies with - in — me as I
6. By — day you bring me com - fort in the

1. long for you, my God, — as my spir - it —
2. night — and by day, — as I hear it —
3. pour — out my soul, — how I would lead the re -
4. down and griev - ing now? — Hope in God: I will
5. think of you to - day. — As an ex - ile —
6. shel - ter of your love. — By — night I will

1. longs to be - hold — the God of my life.
2. said all day long: — “Where is your God?”
3. joic - ing crowd to the house of our God.
4. praise you still, — my Sav - ior, my God.
5. from my home - land, I cry to you, Lord.
6. sing and praise — the God of my life.

Note: When guitar and keyboard play together, keyboardists should improvise using the guitar chords above the melody.

Text: Based on Psalm 42:2-7, 9; Bernadette Farrell, b. 1957.

Music: Bernadette Farrell.

Text and music © 1988, 1992, Bernadette Farrell. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.